TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 15.

THE WHOLESOMENESS OF LEMONS.—When people feel the need of an acid, if they will let vinegar alone and use lemon or sour apples, they would feel just as well satisfied and receive no injury. And a suggestion may not come amiss as a good plan when lemons are cheap in the market. A person should, in those times, purchase several dozen at once, and prepare them for use in the warm days of spring and summer when acids, especially citric or malic, or the acids of lemons, and ripe fruit, are so grateful and useful. Press your hand on the lemon and roll it back and forth briskly on the table, to make it squeak more easily; then press the juice into a bowl or tumbler—never into tin; strain out all the seeds, as they give a bad taste. Remove all the pulp from the peels and boil in water—a pint to a dozen peels—to extract the acids. A few minutes' boiling is enough; then strain the water with the juice of the lemons; put a pound of white sugar to a pint of the juice; boil ten minutes; bottle it, and your lemonade is ready. Put a teaspoonful or two of this lemon syrup in a glass of water, and you have a cooling, wholesome drink.
